Dear Avinash Kumar,

On behalf of everyone at Zorvyn FinTech Pvt. Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), I am delighted to welcome you to the team. We are pleased to confirm that you have officially joined the Company as Cybersecurity Analyst Intern, effective 13th April 2026. This letter serves as formal confirmation of your appointment with us.

Employment Details

Your appointment as Cybersecurity Analyst Intern has been confirmed following the successful completion of your onboarding process. You have been assigned Employee ID ZRVAORXERE, which shall serve as your unique identifier across all Company systems and records.

Your corporate workspace account has been activated and is ready for use. You can access it using the credentials provided in your onboarding email at workplace.zorvyn.org. The webmail access for your corporate email account is currently being configured by our IT team and will be available to you shortly.

You will report directly to Mudiwa Mkonto, who will serve as your reporting manager for the duration of your internship. Mudiwa Mkonto will guide you through your initial assignments, provide feedback on your deliverables, and serve as your primary point of contact for all work related matters.

Your internship is for a period of 6 Months, commencing 13th April 2026. The complete terms and conditions of your engagement, including compensation, confidentiality obligations, and all applicable policies, remain as set forth in your offer letter, which you have acknowledged and accepted.

Work Arrangement

Your role is based on a fully remote work arrangement. You are not required to report to a physical office at any point during your internship. You are expected to maintain a reliable internet connection and a suitable working environment that enables you to carry out your responsibilities effectively.

The standard work week consists of five working days, Monday through Friday. Saturdays and Sundays are designated as weekly off days. You are expected to maintain regular communication with your reporting manager and team members, and any planned absence must be communicated with adequate advance notice.

The confidentiality obligations, code of conduct, and workplace policies outlined in your offer letter remain in full effect throughout your tenure with the Company. All Company resources and any work product created during your internship shall remain the exclusive property of the Company.

For any questions regarding your employment, Company policies, or administrative matters, the Human Resources team is always available at hr@zorvyn.org. Your reporting manager will also help you get connected with the right teams and resources as you settle into your role.

Please retain this letter for your personal records. This document serves as official confirmation of your appointment with the Company and may be required for employment verification purposes.

Avinash Kumar, I want you to know that your selection was not merely procedural. Your skills, your approach to problem solving, and your past work genuinely stood out to us. Each person who joins Zorvyn brings something unique, and we believe you will be a valuable addition to what we are building here.

At Zorvyn, we are committed to creating an environment where every team member has the opportunity to learn, grow, and do work that matters. Whether it is contributing to products that serve real users or developing your own professional capabilities, we want your time here to be both rewarding and meaningful.

We are excited to have you on board, and I personally look forward to seeing the contributions you will make. Welcome to Zorvyn.

Warm Regards,
Raj Kishor Pattnaik
Chief Executive Officer
Zorvyn FinTech Pvt. Ltd.
